HOME OF THE WARRIORS

School Profile:

Coyle and Cassidy High School is a private, coeducational, college preparatory high school under the direction of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Fall River that serves the greater community of Taunton, Massachusetts. We believe that all students can learn provided they are given the proper contextual support. Towards that end we work with all students who demonstrate a willingness to receive a Catholic college preparatory education and who indicate a strong desire to serve their community. Our mission is embedded in our school motto: Enter to Learn...leave to serve.

DATA REPORT:

Interested Coyle and Cassidy applicants are administered the STS High School Placement Test. The placement test and prior student academic achievement help place students in the appropriate course level that best supports their academic development. Student progress is frequently monitored and our goal (in conjunction with our mission) is to provide all students with the opportunity to enroll in Honors level course(s) by the time they become seniors.

By the senior year, all of the students in the first five deciles of the Class of 2009 had entered Honors level courses.

Relevant Data:

Of those students in the first decile ranking of the Class of 2009:

- The median GPA was 3.69.
- The average SAT composite score was 1895. The national average was 1500.
- The average ACT score was 28. The national average score was 21.

Of those students in the first five deciles of the Class of 2009:

- The median GPA was 3.32.
- The average SAT composite score was 1683. The national average was 1500.
- The average ACT score was 24. The national average was 21.

TEN AP courses are offered, however placement is ONLY by the recommendation of the Department Chairperson and prior course work. The AP Courses offered are:
